10. Credit System

10.1. The Course has 6 papers in each semester and each paper is having 4 credit, Then the total credit for the paper of the semester shall be calculated as 4 credit per paper. (For example Credit per paper x Number of papers = 24 credit per semester.).

10.2. The Grade value shall mean the value assigned to the marks obtained by a Candidate in a paper. Grade value is based on ten point scale.

10.3 The table given below shows the marks range, grade value and corresponding letter grade.

| Sl. No | Marks ranged (out of 100) | Grade Value (10 point scale) | Letter Grade |
|---------------|--------------------------------------|---|---------------------|
| 1. | 90 and above | 10 | O (Outstanding) |
| 2. | 80 and above but below 90 | 9 | A+(Excellent) |
| 3. | 70 and above but below 80 | 8 | A(Very Good) |
| 4. | 60 and above but below 70 | 7 | B+(Good) |
| 5. | 50 and above but below 60 | 6 | B(Satisfactory) |
| 6. | Below 50 | 0 | F (Fail) |
| 7. | Absent | 0 | ABS (Absent) |

10.4. The Grade Point shall be calculated by multiplying the grade value obtained by the Candidate and the credits of that paper.

For example, If the Candidate secures the Grade value 07 and the credit of the paper is 04 then grade point of the Candidate in that paper shall be $7 \times 4 = 28$.

10.5. The Semester Grade Point average (SGPA) of the Candidate shall be calculated as the sum total of the Grade Point secured by the Candidate in all the papers of semester divided by total credits of all the papers in that semester.

For example, If there are 6 papers in a semester and each paper is having 4 credits, total credit of the semester shall be calculated as $6 \times 4 = 24$

Therefore, $SGPA = GP 1 + GP 2 + GP 3 + GP 4 + GP 5 + GP 6$ (Grade point in all the six papers in a semester) divided by the total credits

10.6. The Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) of the Candidate shall be calculated as the sum total of the grade points secured in till date divided by total credit of the course till date.

For example, CGPA= Total Grade points in a course divided by Total credits of the course.
